What Is Going On Tonight.

Violet Rebekah Lodge, No. 57, I. O. O. F., meets at 807 Main street.
Ladies' Auxiliary to A. O. H. meet at 794 Main street.

The police made it known Monday that they will institute a campaign against jay walking on Main street in places not designated as crosswalks by lines painted white across the street. Other cities that have designated safe places for jay walking have arrested people who failed to make use of them. The crosswalk is put on the street as a safeguard to the walking public and drivers of vehicles know that on crosswalks the pedestrian has the right of way.

Automobile drivers are also to be watched regarding parking of cars on Main street. The ruling is that parking must be at a 45-degree angle, and many motorists have failed to pay much attention to this ruling. Other drivers who have been in the habit of parking their cars across the street or in the marked-off places on Main street will find themselves before the court if this practice is continued.

The matter of sidewalk obstruction has also come to the attention of the authorities and will be prohibited in regard to portable gasoline pumps, signs and shelves.

The police are also to place signs on North street in the section affected by the recent ruling about parking on that street. These signs are for the east side of the street only.

The truth of the Lebanon Saturday morning court came out somewhat belated and it was known that the two men fined for resisting Constable Stanton L. Briggs were Charles P. Cahill and Frank Lynch of Willimantic.

John Ketchikan, of Ashland street, was treated at St. Joseph's hospital Sunday night for injuries to his hand. A jagged wound had been made between the third and fourth fingers by a nail. Ketchikan had been working on the roof of a shed at his home, suddenly lost his balance and fell to the ground, his hand coming in contact with the nail that caused the injury.

Balloons, flying birds, and whistles were heard about local streets Monday evening when it was known that the circus had hit town.

Mrs. George Flint of Ash Avenue has returned home after a week's visit in Putnam.

R. G. Gish of Union street is visiting relatives in Springfield, Mass.

Sparks' Circus came to this city on Monday and played with two performances, both of which were well attended.

Al Greene, a native of Willimantic who with the circus was advertising manager and chief announcer, was on hand and greeted many friends.

Greene, known in the realms of the white tent as "Minnie Topsy" was also present and during the stay of the circus in this city Mr. and Mrs. Greene stayed at the Greene residence on Main street.

Al Greene was formerly a feature rider with Barnum & Bailey and had toured European countries with that aggregation. He also conducted a large circus academy in Redford, and only recently came to this city.

The photograph section of a New York newspaper, which proclaimed her America's greatest showgirl, many friends of the couple met there during the day.

"Eddie" Jackson, publicity man for the Sparks circus also came in for a warm welcome, as many people remember him from his one-year stay here Monday when he played Little Tim, the Jockey, in Nell Burgess' little drama, "The Country Fair". The show was given at the Loomer Opera house.

The members of Willimantic lodge, No. 1311, B. P. O. E., met at their rooms at 7 o'clock Monday night and headed by the American band marched to the circus grounds and attended the parade in a body. Al Greene and Edward Foran who are connected with the show are both members of the local lodge. Wives and friends of the members also were in the parade also.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Boyd Freeman have returned home from Pleasant Beach where they and their daughter, Florence E. Jones have stayed for two weeks. With the Freeman family at the beach were Mr. and Mrs. Harold V. Scollin and little son, of Boston; Mrs. Marion Lee, of this city; Miss Margaret Storer, of Norwich; and Miss C. Pearl Fisher, Little King, and Allen King of Storrs.

Mrs. Angeline Lorian Avery, one of the two last daughters of the American Revolution in Connecticut, celebrated her 87th birthday Saturday at the home of her son, Frederick Avery of No. 65 High street. She is a member of Anne Wood Grening circle and received from Ruth Willys, chapter of Hartford, Faith Trumbull chapter of Norwich, Greenwood chapter of Winsted and many cards from neighbors and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark are spending two weeks' vacation at South Rock. Charles H. Jones is in enjoying two weeks' vacation in trips to many sections of New England.

Curtis M. Weeks has returned to his work with the Western Telegraph company of Utica, N. Y., after spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Weeks of Ash Avenue.
